BEST OF FRIENDS.
Lauren Gibbons, Sarah Duggan, Kathryn Doherty, Sarah Gomez-Ibañez and Lauren Carr are good friends both in and out of school.

POOL PARTY.
Caroline Broderick, Chad Caldwell, Krissy Ewton and Jill Simon enjoy a summer time break away from school.

THIS IS A PARTY?
Never fear! The Class of '99 is capable of making any event a party- even prom decorating.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY.
This group of boys has been friends since the beginning.

the end of an Era

"Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."
—Sir Winston Churchill

The Class of 1999 represents an End of an Era. We are the last class to graduate from WHS in this millennium. When we leave Weston, we will face the year 2000, a new millennium, and with it many new challenges.

We will never forget our years at Weston High School. They are the foundation from which we will leap to pursue new goals. Just as the past has left us with lasting memories, the future will provide us with opportunities to create new ones.

The new millennium means new beginnings, as our class will separate to follow new paths. It is not just the End of an Era, but the beginning of our future. It's time for a celebration!

Weston 's Favorite Custodian Very Involved With Students

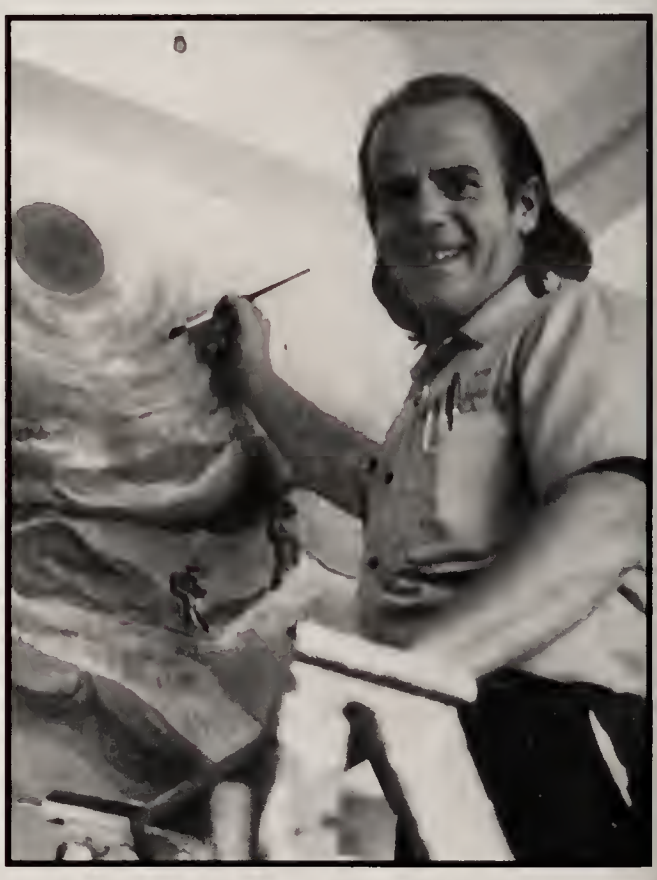
Barry MacNeil

Barry MacNeil is not a teacher, and he isn't involved in our academic lives, but he affects us as much as anyone in the high school. He is always in the cafeteria joking with us, offering advice, telling us stories or wishing us good luck in our athletic endeavors. Many of us feel free to go to Barry with our problems. He can often be seen in the stands at wrestling meets, offering his support. He usually speaks at our Class Day Event as he accepts gifts for the custodial staff, and is generally a presence in our lives. Barry has been a key to our growth as individuals and we owe as much to him as to anyone in the high school. He is unassuming with everyone, but is always welcome.

Barry was badly hurt in a motor cycle accident this fall and is still recuperating. We sincerely hope he will be back at school before the school year is over. If he doesn't make it back until next year, the class of 2000 will welcome him with open arms.

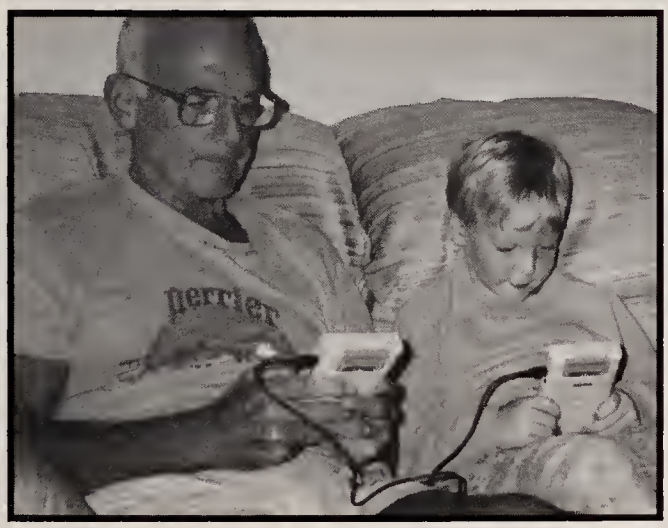
Barry MacNeil embodies the spirit of a great person, and the Weston Class of 1999 will dearly miss him as we leave.

– Connor Wilson



Hugh Chandler

Class of 1999 Feels Fortunate That He Stayed This Year



Hugh Chandler is a man who has chosen his own path and been fortunate to come full circle in his life. He graduated from Weston High in 1948 after a stellar football career. After four years with the 'Cats, he left Weston for the first time in the fall of 1949 and headed away to Springfield College, earning degrees in history and physical education. A two year tour in the army was followed by his first teaching position in upstate New York. Three years later he was working his way back to Weston, earning a Certificate in Advanced Graduate Studies in Guidance at Boston University. He spent four years as Guidance Director at Norwell High School before returning to Weston at the start of the 1965-1966 year.

As a counselor at Weston, he has been recognized with numerous awards and served as president of the prestigious New England Association of College Admission Counselors. Many Weston High School students have benefited from his hard earned reputation with college admission departments.

When many individuals in his age group were contemplating retirement, Mr. Chandler continued to pursue his real "love" - distance running. He completed marathons after the age of 60 and found considerable success.

The dedication of this yearbook to Mr. Chandler will serve as a small token of appreciation from the Class of 1999.

–Coach Foley

TIGHT FRIENDSHIPS. Brooke Tavares, Dawn-Marie Charles, Jared Chandler, Wendy Theall, Melanie DiBenedetto, and Taquea Boseman have remained close during high school.

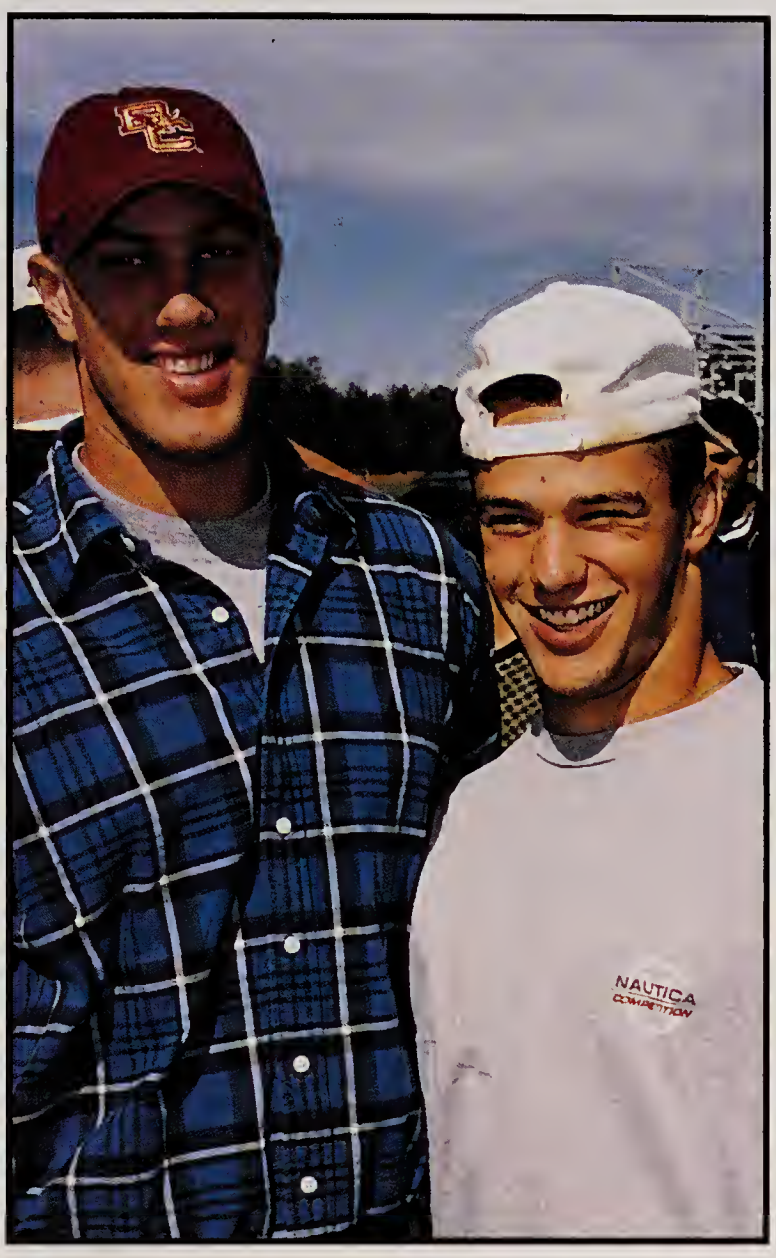
HIGH SPIRIT. These girls play a huge role in the tremendous spirit of the Class of 1999.

THE CLOSEST OF FRIENDS. Lauren Balsbaugh and Sara Peterson will never forget the good times they shared together.

NOTEWORTHY. These three fine musicians–Bill Fagely, Bill Barclay, and Sam Kasssirer–have grown to be close friends during their years at Weston.

Senior Candids Show the Class of '99 in its Last Year in Weston

The End of The Era



FOOTBALL BUDS. Francis Raccioppi and Jordan Remy are close friends both on and off the field.

BALANCING ACT. These senior girls work hard to keep each other off the ground.

ATHLETES AND FRIENDS. JP Parker, Chad Caldwell, Jeff Coburn, and Dave Bell are a large part of the Class of 99's athletic talent.

KING OF CONSTRUCTION. Francis Racciopi and JP Parker discuss the next step in putting together Bourbon Street.

DRILL SERGEANTS. Mike Allain and Jeff Coburn patrol the grounds ready to take care of any loose screws.

MEASURING UP. Katie Kelly looks very serious as she makes a careful measurement.

GROUP EFFORT: Jill Simon, Katie Kelly, Kathryn Doherty, Sara Peterson and Kerry Purcell work together to paint the sidewalk banisters.

HANDY MAN.
Rob Bateman applies his skill by aiding in the building of the framework.

A TOUCH OF JAZZ. Sam Kassirer's personal knowledge of New Orleans brought an authentic touch to the decorations.

BEHIND THE SCENES. Shana Bethune, Laura Fox, and Alyssa Bonnoit artistically paint one of the colorful buildings on the Mardi Gras streetfront.

ROLLING ALONG. Painting was a major part of the construction process, as these seniors soon found out.

BENT OUT OF JOINT. Peter Harley has a puzzled reaction as he applies cement to a corner of the framework.

Building Memories To Last For An Era

Constructing Our Celebration

The End of The Evening

With tremendous hard work and dedication, the Class of 1999 transformed the Town Hall from foul to fantasy. Many laborious hours were spent constructing and painting replicas of establishments on Bourbon Street. Slowly, the famous New Orleans street appeared around us. Sidewalks which ran alongside the rows of buildings lined the dance floor. After securing the structures in place, decorations were spread throughout the hall and final touches were made. It was time to dance. Outside the night was dreary and rainy, but inside lights glistened off the foil and glitter, while elated faces danced to the wonderful music of the Marcels. The hard work was rewarded when the Class of '99 was asked to keep the hall decorated so that Weston residents could admire the outcome. "Mardi Gras" will never be forgotten.

—Kerry Purcell

THE ROYAL COURT. Kerry Purcell and Francis Racciopi share the traditional Prom King and Queen dance.

A BEAUTIFUL NIGHT. Wendy Theall and Dave Bell will always remember their night in Mardi Gras.

READY TO DANCE. These senior girls give their parents one last chance to take pictures before leaving for the night.

MEN IN BLACK. Thes guys are eager to leave home and go to meet their dates.

A FANTASTIC EVENING. Jessica Lawrence and Susan Warren are pleased that prom night met their great expectations.

ON THE DANCE FLOOR. Robby Bateman and Lauren Balsbaugh share one of many dances during the evening.

JUST ONE MORE! This group of seniors has had about enough of picture taking.

BEAD-AZZLED. Kate Ferguson and Trisha Zeytoonjian get into the Mardi Gras spirit.

ABOUT TO GO. This group poses for their parents before leaving for dinner and dancing.

Auction A Bigger Success Than Could Have Been Imagined.

Welcome to the Wild, Wild West!

HOWDY. Cowboy Rob Bateman gets ready for the auction.

PALS AT THE CORRAL. This lively group gets in the spirit of the Wild West.

WANTED. These bad boys should be behind bars.

ALL SPURRED UP. Kate Ferguson, Trish Zeytoonjian, Fran Racioppi and Chad Caldwell prepare for the evening to begin.

TOWN CRIERS. Tip your hats to the Town Criers, who auctioned off their voices.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER. Bill Barclay displays his talent as a wonderful field hockey player.

MUSIC MAKERS. Dan Whittenberger and John Kushner provided music for the auction.

DOUBLE TAKE. These two look like twins in their identical cowboy getups.

As with everything else, the Class of 1999 set another record during the Junior Class Auction. The cafeteria was transformed into a corral, following the theme of the Wild West. The auctioneers were enthusiastic and encouraged everyone there to bid highly. Their efforts were successful, as were the continuous efforts of all of the people involved.

The class received over 350 donations and raised money totaling more than $36,400, shattering the impressive record of 1998 by over $3,000 .

As co-chairs of the general auction, we were very pleased with everyone's generosity and their contributions. We hope that in the future, other classes will be able repeat the success that we had.

–Francis Racioppi and Sarah Jenks-Daly

HANGING OUT! This group of guys spent a happy day playing baseball.

PILE UP. First graders Emily Breyan, Amelia Munger, Danielle Sanzone and Jessica Lawrence have always enjoyed spending time together.

CLOWNING AROUND. Sarah Jenks-Daly and Andrew Horowitz love their painted faces after a day at the fair.

IT'S A PARTY! Krissy Ewton and Kate Maruskin spend time together at a kindergarten party.

TROOP 3063. This group of second graders were devoted Brownies.

The Class of 1999 Has Been Together From the Very Start

Beginning of an Era

FUTURE WILDCATS. Chad Caldwell and JP Parker are excited before a Waterworks swim meet.

BACK IN THE SADDLE. Sara Gomez-Ibañez and Katrina Pichevin both started horseback riding at a very young age.

STUSH! First grader Amy Stutius looks very cute at a first grade party.

PACK 152. Cub Scouts Peter Wilson, Justin Woodside, Jeffries Oliver-Li, and Peter Harley seem to be taking Cub Scouting very seriously.

We Appreciate Your Help, Class Advisors

Thanks So Much!

Behind every great class lies a great class council. While most class officers come and go, the class mothers and the class advisors have stayed on board acting as a watchful eye and the voice of reason, compromise, and new ideas. For four years they have seen us grow up as a class. We have been fortunate to have class mothers and advisors who believed in us and backed our decisions. They are the silent workers for our class, who never complained about morning meetings or sacrificing other engagements to help us out. Our class advisors are one of the reasons why the Class of 1999 is so successful, and we wouldn't have made it without them. Mrs. DaCosta (and Stan), Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Romanow and Mrs. Igoe, you are forever in our hearts. We love you all and cannot thank you enough. – Bill Fagley

BIG HELP. Prom construction ran smoothly, but we couldn't have done it without the help of our class moms and advisors.

LIKE MOTHER LIKE DAUGHTER. Mrs. Romanow and Alexis share class spirit.

THE BIG NIGHT. Our class advisors, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. DaCosta and their husbands, are full of the Mardi Gras spirit.

A MOMENT OF SATISFACTION. The Class of '99 could not have pulled off our spectacular semi-formal without all of the time and creativity that our class advisors and mothers put in.

BATEMAN BONDING. Mrs. Bateman and Robby enjoy an evening in Paris at our sophomore semi-formal.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF. Mrs. DaCosta stands with Bill Fagley and Sam Kassirer to admire the magestic Mardi Gras street that took much effort to create.

PROM TIME. Mrs. Igoe and Dan have played large parts in piecing together the Prom.

THANK YOU. We can't thank our class mothers enough for their continued support throughout our four years.

The Class of 1999 Has Some Noteworthy Characteristics

Lifers and Siblings – Many of Both at Weston

From the Beginning to the End

SENIORS AND FRESHMEN.
Chad and Johnathan Caldwell, Sarah and Maggie Jenks-Daly and Dave and Omar Bell are pleased to be with their siblings for a year of highschool.

BIG SISTERS.
Tara Abraham and Gigi Ng help aquaint their younger brothers, George and Vincent, with the high school.

WHEN THEY WERE YOUNGER.
Brothers Evan and Ryan Gallagher are just as good friends now as they were back then.

LITTLE BROTHER.
Freshman Colin Harley will miss his brother Peter next year when he is at college.

SISTER-BONDING.
Senior Amelia Munger is glad to show her freshman sister, Hannah, around the school.

The term "Lifer". A word that sets apart a group of people who have all gone through the Weston school system for thirteen years. A group of people who share similar memories of the Bug Play, of China Night, of numerous Field Days, of the Oregon Trail, and of all of our teachers. We are the only group of people who have shared these times together, who have known each other for so long and watched each other grow up, from kindergarten until now. As we look around the Class of 1999, we see the same old familiar faces that have been there forever, and can identify a moment, a memory that we have had with each person. Now, at the end of the road, being a Lifer is something to treasure. Never forget the memories.

—Amelia Munger

Connecting Students from other Classes and Countries

A Welcoming Hand

The seniors have gotten to know the underclassmen during the years in which they have been in the high school. In clubs or on teams, the seniors have made the underclassmen feel welcome, and often have become good friends. The seniors have also welcomed students who are here from other countries on exchange programs. There are many times when a sophomore or freshmen will ask a senior for help with studying or homework, or for advice on how to deal with a teacher. The Class of 1999 even allowed a few privileged freshmen to eat lunch in the exclusive "senior section" of the cafeteria. The friendships and friendly attitudes of the senior class have helped bring both the classes and the students together.

–Ashley St. Mary

LUNCH CHAT. Christina Kappel, Ashley St. Mary, Brennan White and Jill Conley work-up a great conversation during a lunch period.

RUNNING BUDDIES. Torrey Kulow, Sarah McNeer, and Jenny Wong enjoy the great weather as they buddy-up for a cross country run.

I'LL MISS YOU. Sophomore Peter Zotto and senior Kate Ferguson have become great friends throughout the past past year.

YESSS! The field hockey team is all smiles after winning another home field game.

PAINFUL FRIENDSHIPS. Christie Langenberg, Jordan MacClary, and K.C. Czarnowski have become great friends on the field and while healing together in trainers office.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT. Torrey Kulow, Mr. McCowan, Brenn White and Gigi Ng are all dressed up with no place to go.

UNITED NATIONS. Danielle Sanzone and Leisel Kuhr have become good friends with Benedicte Noire, our student from France.

EW. Without the other letters, Matt Peters and Chad Caldwell might be sending the wrong message to the Thanksgiving Game crowd.

POWDER PUFFS. Presenting the first Powder Puff game as a preliminary to the annual Weston-Wayland Thanksgiving football rivalry.

the end of an Era

The times we have shared will always be remembered as the Class of 1999 faces the road ahead. Ready for anything that comes our way, we must follow the respective paths before us with no thought of waiting for tomorrow. The years at Weston High School have filled us with the knowledge, warmth and brilliance of individuals who have the will to succeed. We have learned the strength to seek our desires and the determination to follow our dreams. No boundary can hold us back, no separation can break us apart. Everything left behind only builds the height of our future.

"Lets find a way today that can take us to tomorrow. Follow that way away like flowing water.Lets leave behind the things that do not matter and turn our lives to a more important chapter.Lets take the time lets try to find what real life has to offer. And maybe then we'll find again what we had long forgotten.Like a friend true til the end it will help us onward.The sun is high the road is wide and it starts where we are standing.No one knows how far it goes for the road is neverending.It goes beyond what we have thought of.It flows away. Hey Everybody!! I have so many things to say! First of all, I would like to thank the Weston-Rombas Association for having given me such a wonderful oppurtunity. Merci Papa, Maman, Soph et Ben: I love you. I thank all my families for spoiling me so much.
WOW! What an incredible year! I had never imagined that I could meet so many wonderful people. Everyone of you brought me something very unique and showed me how beautiful life really is.
I wish you all the best of luck in the coming years. I will miss you a lot. My memories of Weston will always be engraved in my heart. Dani, Suj, Ellen, Bill, Liesel, JC, and the others, I love you always forever. I hope to see you someday.

the end of an Era

With the close of the school year of 1999, we have reached a new point in our lives. Each of us will be faced with new levels of opportunity when we return in the fall. The underclassmen are now in an exciting position. Over the past year, you have shown great potential in academics and athletics, in the arts and in the community. When the Class of '99 scatters to their respective colleges, you will all have the chance to show what you have to offer. With the exit of the seniors and the new opportunities afforded by the renovation, the new schedule, and the end of the millenium, each one of you has the potential to rise into your own when you return next year. As this chapter of our lives comes to a close, you can learn from and build on what has already been achieved, and challenge the legacy left by the Class of 1999. Susan Warren

Class of 2000

The Class of 2000 has been waiting impatiently to wake from our slumber, and what better time to do it then Junior year?

This year the juniors have shown amazing talent and participation. We have started new traditions and will be remembered for what we've accomplished for years to come. We viewed the world in many diverse ways, from water level at the elegant Odyssey cruises, to high up on cliffs at the sumptuous Weylu's. We've seen different aspects of society at Jackson Mann and the homeless shelters. The first class of the 21st century has been all over: Old World Venice for the prom and back to the Roaring Twenties, as flappers and gangsters, for the auction.

Should we keep going? We promise we will, and no one has seen the half of it! Class of 2000, congratulations on a successful year filled with unforgettable memories, there will be many more to come. This is our second-to-last year: live it wisely and good luck in the future.

Class of 2001

The class of 2001 kept busy this year planning trips, and organizing the semi-formal.

We started off the year with a great turn out from the sophomore class for the City Year trip. We had a great class trip to Jillians, and afterwards out to dinner. We kept our connection with Jackson Mann, and plan to continue working with them.

Our Semi at Regis was truly a success, a night to remember. And of course, we ended our year with our traditional Boston harbor cruise.

Thanks to the class of '01 for all their help in making this year as memorable as it was.

Thank You,

Class of 2002

This year was quite memorable. September seems like yesterday, when on the first day of school we all felt so nervous being but mere freshmen and now we are almost sophomores.

Our first class activity was the Pot Luck dinner. We had more than forty families come and make it great. Next, we sold candy, soda and baked goods at the winter play and made a fantastic profit. And who could forget the first ever freshman holiday party? What a way to get into the holiday spirit! The rest of the year just took off from there. We continued with our community service project with hope that we can do it again next year. Every season we were strongly represented on varsity teams such as football, soccer, field hockey and golf. And we were also in plays and choruses.

This may have been our first year in the high school, but we have paved the way for making the next three years the best of our lives.

the end of an Era

Endowed with Wildcat pride, the Class of 1999 has learned what it takes to succeed. The victors are not always the most able, but they are the ones who are willing to put the most heart and hustle on the line. Our hearts are filled with a competitive spirit which drives us to reach our goals, and to not be afraid to dream. Our teams have set the standard high. We reach for the stars, do not fear defeat, nor accept it as final. As we look at the road ahead of us, we know that it will not be smooth. However, the stretch of the road behind us has had its own potholes. We have the ability to overcome defeat. The experiences we have gained while at Weston have prepared us to strive for our goals and dreams. Our era at Weston has ended, but it will not be forgotten.

Kathryn Doherty

Sports

POWER.
The key to the outstanding year that Mike Allain had was his raw power. Here he turns the corner on the defenders.

EXPLOSION.
Jordan Remy is seen here outrunning the Wayland defenders. His speed and explosiveness were the reasons why he led the Wildcats in rushing touchdowns this year.

Champions Once Again

Super Bowl Heroes

The season started off with a few easy victories, but the Wildcats knew that it would take more than this to be successful throughout the season. After a disappointing loss against Hanover, the team united as a family and set their goal to achieve a victorious year.

The team rolled over their next four opponents, all the while preparing for the Thanksgiving show down. By winning against their traditional rival Wayland, the team advanced to the Superbowl in which the 'Cats blew out Madison Park 34-0.

The offense was powered by seniors Mike Allain, Pat Doherty, Andrew Horowitz and Jordan Remy and held together by the line: Fran Racioppi, Andrew Sutton, Zach Brainard, Bobby Desaulniers, and Jason "Sparkles" Semine.

Defensively the team was great as well. Chris Stratton led the line with nine sacks. Brady Lauback led the team in tackles and Andrew Wernick played solid inside linebacker.

With a combination of skill and strength the Wildcats proved to be Champions.

-Bobby Desaulniers

MEETING.
The whole team meets Coach O'Hara at midfield for words of wisdom and game plans.

HEART.
The offensive line seen here showed much heart this season. They contributed greatly to the excellent season of the team.

ONE MORE SHOT . . .

Champions

Being dropped off the polls from number two in the state did not stop these girls from believing. Since the end of last season they faced the pressure to return to the Division III State finals and emerge as state champions. With their goals set high, nothing, not even injury, was an obstacle large enough to weaken their desire and Wildcat pride. They finished the season second in a strong DCL. Tournament time produced two of the most exciting games all season—back to back. One goal in a shoot out against Marian advanced the team to the E-Mass finals versus Hanover. By dominating the play, the Wildcats gained the right to defend their state title and this time they were not going to share it with anyone. Leicester's effort could not match the skill of these girls, and Weston was crowned the 1998 State Champions. The hardest part of the winning the state championship was acknowledging that the season was over.

Best Ever!

The Boys' Soccer Team made history this year. They were the first boy's soccer team in Weston's history to reach the State's North Sectional Finals. This team had heart and character, and not only set a standard for teams to come, but will be remembered as one of Weston's finest teams ever.

The team, which one year ago won only two games in the regular season, had a tremendous season, ending with a 10-10-3 record. The success of the team was attributed to hard work, team chemistry, and desire.

The team goals for the season included qualifying for the State Tournament, which no Weston team had done in 14 years, and to win a state championship. The first goal was accomplished very early in the season; and the second goal fell only three victories short.

No one can take anything away from this team; they always played their hearts out and they went further in the State Tournament than anyone ever expected.

No single player was the reason this team was successful. All members played a critical role and they worked together as a unit. The team motto was "Don't be afraid to dream."

WE WANT IT TOGETHER

No Regrets

We couldn't have dreamed of a better season to end our careers. The scorching days of August brought a preseason with only three returning starters. We were a new team that needed unity and confidence to succeed. Soon, after tough practices, our first dinners, and the lessons of a dedicated coach, we molded twenty-five different players and personalities into one tight unit. We found that as a team we had the heart, the desire, the competitive edge, the drive, and the endurance to take us through one of Weston's most successful seasons.

The team of '98 went undefeated in the league, crushing our long-standing rivals Wayland and A-B. In our unbelievable 3-0 victory against Concord, we clinched the DCL. Our winning did not stop there. Soon we were crowned the overtime queens, making it past the second round plague, as we cruised to victory in four consecutive tournament games. One of our most unexpected accomplishments of the season was our hard fought and well deserved victory over A-B to capture the North Sectional title in strokes.

Thanks to Coach G, Mrs. Healey and Coach Bennotti. Good luck next year! "Together we stand. Together we fall. Together as one, we conquer it all!"

Still Running Strong

Every Mile

The Wildcat Cross Country teams both had strong seasons under the guidance of Coach Monz and Coach Maguire. Despite losing powerhouse Justin Wilson, the boys' team still had am impressive year. Led by Captain Justin "Woody" Woodside, the boy's team went six and two in a competitivew DCL, a vast improvement over last year's record of four and four. At the Eastern Mass Class D Meet, the boys had a tough race, but thanks to the efforts of sophomore Henry Cipolla and Junior Max Riffin they managed to finish in fourth place. This qualified them for the Division II All State for the ninth year in a row.

The girls' team went from one and seven last year to two and six this year in the DCL. While at first glance this may not seem very imporssive, the girls achieved this improvement despite widespread injuries at the beginning of the season. they were inspired by the successes of juniors Taryn Scholowsky and Jordan MacClary and came together under the leadership of senior captain Sarah McNeer. By the end of the season, awe were running as a unit. The girls' tema had an outstanding race at the Eastern Mass Class D Meet, which qualified them for the Division II All State Meet for the first time since 1991.

After a year of solid, successful racing, the future looks bright for the girls' and boys' Cross Country teams next year.

On The Links

In its second year as a varsity sport, the golf team proved it could compete with everyone else by qualifying for the state tournament again.

After losing four strong players to graduation, veterans Steve Sahlman, Alex Smith, Derek Taff and Ross Wrangham stepped up their game, while newcomers Charlie Sahlman, Andrew Cooper, Alan Lane, and Adam Wiggeman proved that they could play with the best of them.

Steve Sahlman came in a respectable tenth place, to miss qualifying for the next round in the tournament by one stroke. Only a week earlier, Steve's younger brother, Charlie, stunned everyone by becoming the first freshman ever to capture the DCL title.

Overall it was a fun and successful year.

Makes For Victory

The grapplers performed tremendously all year, culminating in the final two weeks with a second place finish in the sectionals and third in the states.

Captains Mike Allain and Andy Starr proved to be among the elite wrestlers in the state by qualifying for the New England Tournament. Both were state champions, while Starr finished second in All-States and Allain finished third at 140 and 160 pounds, respectively.

Senior Rob Bateman at 171 pounds captured a sectional and state title as well.

Jack Sallay had an impressive year at 103 pounds winning the section and taking third at the states.

Andrew Horowitz at 145, Aaron Michel at 152, and Dan Whittenberger at 275 were state-qualifiers in their final year.

John Ivey wrestled at 135 pounds and beat several state placers but was injured for the sectionals.

Austin Allain led the juniors with a fourth-place finish in the states at 112 pounds.

Doug Haber also placed in the states, coming in fifth at 125 pounds.

Other state qualifiers were Brad Davenport at 119, John Viola at 130, and Jon Selame at 215.

BEST EVER . . .

LADY CATS

With each game won, the Lady 'Cats were making history and setting the standard for years to come. The seven seniors had seen the development of this program since their freshman season. Unlike four years ago, this year the girls had a winning record and finished 10-10 in their regular season to qualify for the State Division Three Tournament. During the Watertown Tournament, they captured first place and received what is believed to be the first ever Weston girls basketball trophy.

Throughout the season, these girls practiced with intensity knowing that their success would come. In their re-matches against three of the DCL power houses, Weston showed everyone just how much they had improved by taking the top ranked Boston Latin into overtime, and then by fighting back from an 18 point margin to lose by three in Newton South's Lion Den. Finally, in the last game of the regular season, Weston tasted victory as they upset Westford. Prepared for tournament play, the Lady 'Cats surprised the state on their journey to "save the princess."

Everyone will miss the special times which were shared with this team, but their legacy will last. –Kathryn Doherty

Rebuilding Year

Great Run

The Weston Boys' Basketball team overcame the loss of four starters and six of their top seven players from last year's team to make it to the state tournament and accomplish what many believed they would not be able to– a rebuilding year turned into a very successful one.

The team was led by senior co-captain Jared Chandler, who was awarded the DCL's Most Valuable Player award and who became Weston High's all-time leading scorer.

Senior co-captain Steve Sahlman and senior Alex Smith increased their roles from previous years to contribute valuable minutes and much needed rebounding, as well as providing key leadership.

Juniors Matt Wolf and Khamal Edison rounded out the starting lineup, providing dependable ball handling.

Other key contributors included Aaron Berkey, Casey Gibbons, John Kerameris, Joff Diffenbach, Connor Wilson, Dave Carpio and Peter Zotto.

THE RED TIDE

Will Rise Again

The Tide does it again! What was intended to be a "rebuilding season" turned into an undefeated triumph. Many find it boggling that a small school like Weston could have such a consistently outstanding swim team, but the swimmers of the Red Tide find it to be no mystery. The unparalleled coaching staff headed by Coach Foley and Coach Valle pushes each one of us to perform at our full potential.

The highlight of the season came when the Tide crushed long-standing rival Acton-Boxboro to complete an undefeated season of 15-0, thus making us DCL champions for league dual-meets. Several varsity records were obliterated and the girls were crowned DCL and sectional champions for the second year in a row, finishing second in the state. Newcomers Jason Korsmeier and Nicole Wake added much to the team, while veterans Pat Dunn, Niles Madison, Matt Peters, Courtney Davis and Caroline Curtis consistently strived for and reached excellence. This year's seniors provided great leadership, headed by tri-captains Chad Caldwell, Trish Zeytoonjian, and Selby Becker. All nine seniors qualified for the sectional meet this season. The male members of the Tide were crowned State Champions.

Still Running Strong

Every Mile

After overcoming a bit of a slow start at the beginning of the season, the Weston Winter Track teams strode to a great finish. In the Dual County League, the girls finished six and two; while the boys finished five and three.

The boys' team was led by a strong group of seniors, including Pat Doherty, Kevin Wright, and Justin Woodside, as well as key contributors Brad Callow, Peter Wilson, Dan Lam, Andrew Sutton and Henry Cipolla. One of the highlights of the boys' season was the upset of league power Lincoln Sudbury, with Weston winning by a three point margin. The boys finished the season as runners-up in the Class D meet. Pat Doherty won the 600 meters. The 4X400 and the 4X800 teams also ran to victory.

The girls' team was anchored by senior tri-captain KC Czarnowski and juniors Kate Flaherty and Taryn Schlowsky, with many firsts coming from sophomore standouts Jordan MacClary and Ashley Viola. The girls also had key contributions from Christie Langenberg, Peri West and Jenny Wong. They had a strong showing at the Class D championships. KC Czarnowski won the long jump at both the Class D and the All State Championships.

With a strong group of runners returning, the girls will be looking for more championships next year, while the boys will hope to repeat this year's success. –Justin Woodside

the end of an Era

As the last class to graduate in the 1900's, we, the class of 1999, have surpassed all expectations in our activities, arts, sports and academics. Our involvement, motivation, and accomplishments show our devotion and committment to our town and school. The time we have spent together has brought us closer and has helped us to grow and develop. As this chapter in our lives comes to a close, we will soon begin a new one elsewhere. The unforgettable memories from the field, the classroom, the theater and at various activity sponsored events will travel with us wherever we may go. We are the "End of an Era", but we choose to view it as the beginning of a new century.

Theater Company

The Fall Production of "Twelfth Night, or What You Will", was a Tremendous Success

The Theater Company is made up of many talented and artistic people. The 1998-1999 Theater Company season has involved the productions of various works. Shakespeare's masterpiece "Twelfth Night" was a great success for the fall season. For the winter season, the 1920's tragedy "Machinal" kept audiences riveted. To end the year, the spring musical "Once On This Island" dazzled audiences with the Carribean style music and dancing. The success of these productions is largely due to the efforts of our very talented director, Mr. John Minigan. The Theater Company creates a great atmosphere for self expression. Through our hard work in all of the productions, all of the members involved feel as if we are a family.

Nature Appreciation

Mountain Sports

Mountain Sports Club members always go to the extreme, whether they're skiing at Attitash Bear Peak or in Utah. Or even if they're stuck on a cliff.

–Derek Taff

Outdoors Club

Members of the Outdoors Club enjoy camping, hiking, and having fun with nature. Although the club had some difficulty organizing trips, the group continued to plan fun outings to the great outdoors.

–Peter Wilson

GLIDING. Nick Powley skillfully cruises down a mountain.

NATURE LOVER! Brennan White shows off his flowered Hawaiian shirt.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD. Evan Zacharias, George Brewster and Justin Woodside pause on top of a ski mountain, tired from a long day on the slopes.

the end of an Era

All of these academically-based clubs contribute positively to the well-being of the school and the town

Fun With Technology

Math Team

We might be mathletes, but we are also reigning state and New England champions! With a strong team, we hope to repeat this year. The future looks bright with our capable underclassmen.

–Danielle Sanzone

Science Team

This year marked a new start with Dr. Rees at the helm. A determined construction crew of Nick Powley & Dan Martin, got the team off to a fast start. Hopefully, we can keep it up through the final Olympiad in March.

–Ishan Sachdev

Stockyard

Now in a new store, we've got more candy, clothes, and merchandise. Always the best investment on the market, Stockyard promises to deliver even more this year with dedicated workers and enthusiastic employees.

–Amy Kim

All of these student -run groups work together to improve social awareness and the lives of others

Keeping Open Minds at WHS

SADD

SADD was brought back to raise awareness in our community about the dangers of making destructive decisions, especially drinking and driving.

–Julie Shapiro

Peer Mediation

This program is offered to help students resolve conflicts. A team of well trained students sits down with conflicting parties to attempt to smooth a situation. Mediators work to make the school healthier and more positive. –Bobby Desaulniers

Gay/Straight Alliance

The Gay-Straight Alliance is committed to learning about and celebrating issues relating to gender and sexuality, as well as ending homophobia in our community.

–Sarah Doherty

THUMBS UP! David Fuller and David Cope display a "thumbs up" attitude to each of these groups, and they particulary commend the Peer Mediators–the group they mentor.

SADD. Row One. KC Czarnowski, JP Parker, Jill Simon. Row Two. Lauren Carr, Carrie Neill, Wendy Theall, Krissy Ewton, Anna Shum, Courtney Davies, Sarah Duggan. Row Three. Proving that everything is possible, our cheerleaders, without a coach, worked double-hard to smile and help take the basketball team to many victories. KEEP UP THE EFFORT, GIRLS!

–Daniela Plesnik

Cheerleaders

The Chess Club, new this year, consists of and is run mainly by kids from the class of 2002. We have conducted tounaments involving members and non members, and have weekly meetings for casual games with other members.

–Ethan Rothstein

Chess Club

Earning three gold medals and four other placings for Weston, the Skating Club is off to a successful start. Hopefully more students will join, whether they skate or want to cheer for the first ever Weston Figure Skating Club!

–Nadia Liu

Figure Skating

We hope to allow members to participate in the intense and exciting sport of ping-pong. We hold tournaments and play sessions to help members hone their skills, and to enjoy the greatness of table tennis.

–Ishan Sachdev

Ping Pong Club

Fun, Fun, Fun!!!

Coordination and focus is vital to all of these clubs at WHS

WHAT A GOOD IDEA! Genevieve Abraham and Carla Racioppi exchange ideas about an exciting layout.

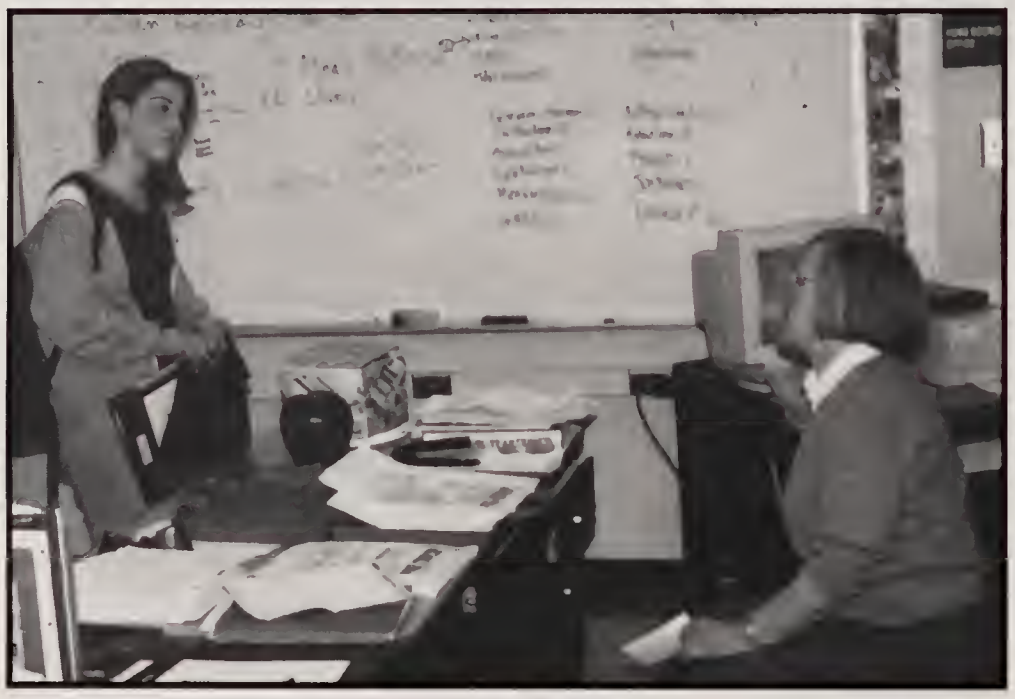
MAKING DECISIONS. Emily Breyan and Mrs. Nickeson discuss some serious yearbook issues.



PIECING IT TOGETHER. Peter Wilson explains layouts to Meghan Wilson, Caroline Pierson, Rosemary Flynn, Ashley St. Mary, and Christina Kappel.

ADDING THINGS UP! Shayna Garlisi organizes the Advertising Section.

TALKING SPORTS. Bobby Desaulniers and Kathryn Doherty collaborate on the Sports Section.

The Yearbook staff is a dedicated group of students from every grade who, through a collaborative and creative effort, publish a book which captures the memories of an entire year.

The staff is responsible for all of the layouts, photography and desktop publishing. Thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Nickeson, the yearbook advisor, we (almost) always meet our deadlines in order to receive the book in late May. Despite the stress of constantly being responsible for publishing deadlines, working on the Yearbook is an enjoyable activity whose final product represents all of Weston High School.

Thanks to the efforts of the editors, staff, and Mrs. Nickeson, students will be able to remember this year at Weston High for many years to come.

–Peter Wilson

SMILE! Hannah Munger and Christina Kappel have fun working together on the yearbook.

HARD AT WORK. Daniela Plesnik carefully maps out the layout of an advertisement.

the end of an Era

As the year comes to an end, we reflect back on all of the good times we have shared. From our first barbecue and our Senior buddies, the old caf, the french fry mural and music in the hallways, to the Sophomore semi (and the Sophomore slump), Spring Fling, the school flood, Junior Bonding Day, the Class Auction, construction and the big....triangle...., to Mardi Gras, the bonfire, the pep rally and Thanksgiving Day Game, Senior Internships, and finally our graduation on the green, our memories are a common bond that we all share as graduates of Weston High School, Class of 1999. As we move on to the next part of our lives, remember all that we have learned in this, our first and perhaps greatest Era.

I can't believe how close we have become in such a short amount of time, you are like a sis to me and I'm never gonna forget all the fun times, I'll even remember the sad ones. I'm not gonna say keep in touch, cause I know that no matter where life takes us we'll always be the best of friends. Thanks for being the best kind of friend possible, PUNKY!!! 143-233-5

SP-I can remember being in my beginning years in CYO and admiring you so much. I thought so much of you and wanted to be exactly like you. You showed me the way to bball Sara, and I honestly enjoyed every second that I played beside you on the court, whether it was in CYO or varsity, you were always my role model. Thanks for everything, Good luck in the future, don't hit any deer, and keep in touch.

CR-Getting to know you has been an awesome experience. Although at first those glares did scare me, I became more and more glad that they didn't really express your true opinions of people. Lifting with you and K was so much fun, and I hope you keep in touch after you go to college. Good Luck and I know you'll succeed in whatever you do cause you are the most intelligent, hardest working student and friend I have ever met.

CN-I know you probably hate me, but I guess you have every right to. I'm sorry for never returning all those phone calls, and for not calling. BUT you never had your pager on!!! I'll never forget the late night chats, you never letting me get off the phone, the endless phone conversations about you know who, and most of all, how much you laughed when I told you that secret about someone saying they were in love with someone else!!! You are a special friend, even though I don't show it too often, and I hope you accomplish all that you want, I'll miss you next year Neillb!

D-No one on the face of this planet will ever be able to make me laugh as much as you have, I can't even begin to tell you how much I'm gonna miss you next year. I'll always remember that big smile, and the endless amounts of food you took in at the olive garden! Good Luck, and keep in touch.

KD, JC, DC, KE, SP, CR, CB- I'll never forget how excited I was to have the opportunity to play with all of you the first day I stepped on the court. The teasing was rough, and I know to most of you I'm still a "FROSH", but at least I didn't stoop to your level and have to do the lunges down the hall with Lindsay!!! Thanks so much for the past two years, you all made them memorable and I'll never forget any of you.

I wish all of you the best of luck. –J

CONGRATULATIONS TO J.P. and the CLASS OF 1999

We couldn't be prouder of you and the wonderful young man you are.

We'll miss watching you play soccer and lacrosse, but if you'll use the personal skills you display on the field, in life—hard work and follow through, self assured strength and patient determination—you'll be able to meet life's challenges. May you always be the gentleman you are with sensitivity and caring for others.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

J. P.

It has been an enormous pleasure to watch you grow from a toddler into a confident young man. We are both very proud of you and your many accomplishments, whether they be on the soccer field, in the classroom, or around the house. You are, and will always be, a kind, caring brother and friend.

Keep up the good work, stay true to yourself and always follow your heart.

All our love,
Lora & Lisa

J.P.

You've been the best brother that any sister could ask for. I can't believe how proud you have made me. Your talent, your charm, and your sense of humor go unsurpassed.

You have an exciting journey ahead of you, and I know that it promises you lots of success.

I love you,
Jennie

Sarah-
Congratulations! I don't know what I'm going to do without you next year. You always understand me and can make me laugh. Don't every forget . . . .SBTB, 90210, Alta, Shagnasty, DR, Nike, lighting lemonade, Marky Ricky Danny etc., Life with Louie, Katie and you trying to get a tan in Utah, Diana, Soccer 98', Look what you did you little jerk, that's nice that's real nice and dance party. I'm going to miss you so much, you're the coolest.

You're my best friend, I love you
Maga

Sarah–
I'll miss you next year. I'll miss you calling me E, I'll miss watching you play soccer and lacrosse, I'll miss you blasting the music and singing, I'll miss you driving me everywhere. When I think of pencils I'll think of Maggie chucking one out the window and you taping one to the ceiling. You've been a great sister and I don't want to let you go. Good luck in college, work hard. I love you
Love, E
PS–you always have a room back here, unless I take it!!!

Jill,

It seems like only yesterday we were celebrating your 1st birthday at 12 noon.
It's hard to believe you will be graduating this very June.
You've gone from a beautiful baby that people would often stop and stare,
To a magnificent woman, how quick did we go from then to here.
May your future + dreams
always be so very bright.
Because you Jill, have been pure delight.
With all our love + more,

the end of an Era

Care about others: Six years of UNICEF. Through your efforts over the past two years, Weston elementary students have raised almost five thousand dollars for the U.S. Committee for UNICEF and this money may have: helped immunize over thirty-four thousand children against measles; bought thirty-two wells to provide clean drinking water; or provided salt iodation for almost three million people or enough iodine to almost two thousand children from pneumonia. In helping UNICEF, you have fought for human rights, helped in the fight to protect children from child labor, supported the International Campaign to Ban Landmines, and given children around the globe a chance at a healthy, productive life. ♥ ♥ ♥ It's 7:11 ♥ ♥ ♥ Expand your horizons: Six years of club soccer where you have played with girls and boys from over fifty Massachusetts communities and played against teams from over eleven states. Strive for excellence: Seven years of SoccerPlus and three years of Andy Carver (phew!). Go the distance: An estimated fifty thousand soccer miles (not including Nate!). Bring it on home: "It doesn't get any better than that..." - Coach Nally. Take a stand: Cross-country rocks. Make a difference: You already have...

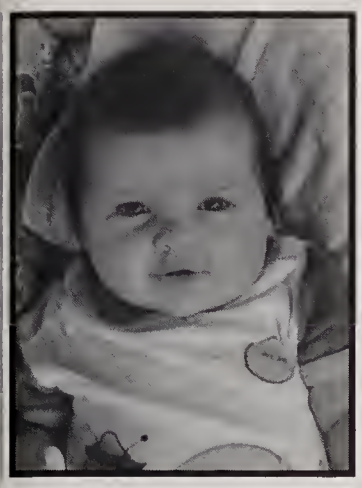
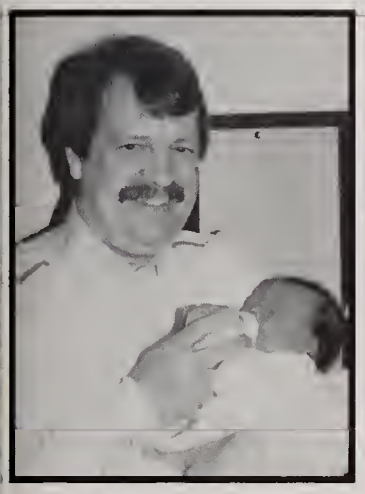
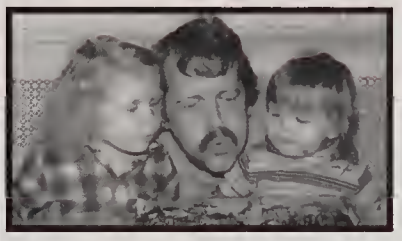
You Did It! — Your Way







KRISTIN MICHELLE EWTON

Dear Krissy,

What a blessing you have been! You have stood strong throughout the years, when it may have been easier to just follow or compromise your ideals. Since elementary school you have worked diligently and stayed focused to attain your goals. Your organizational skills and drive have amazed us! You have touched people's lives with a sweet spirit that is so evident in all the things you do for your family and friends. Always remember Dad with his video camera. We will forever be able to return to Whittemore House, the first day of school on the front steps, recitals, birthdays, basketball games, and of course Disney!! Gram always called you her "ray of sunshine" and reminded you to keep your eye on Him and you would never go wrong. Krissy, we will always be here for you and look forward to your basketball season next winter. Love, Mom, Dad, Katrina, Beauregard, Mocha, and Maxwell

Dear Lids,

Thank you for the love, joy, and sunshine you have brought into our family.

We have given you roots; now it is time to fly. Soar high Special One.

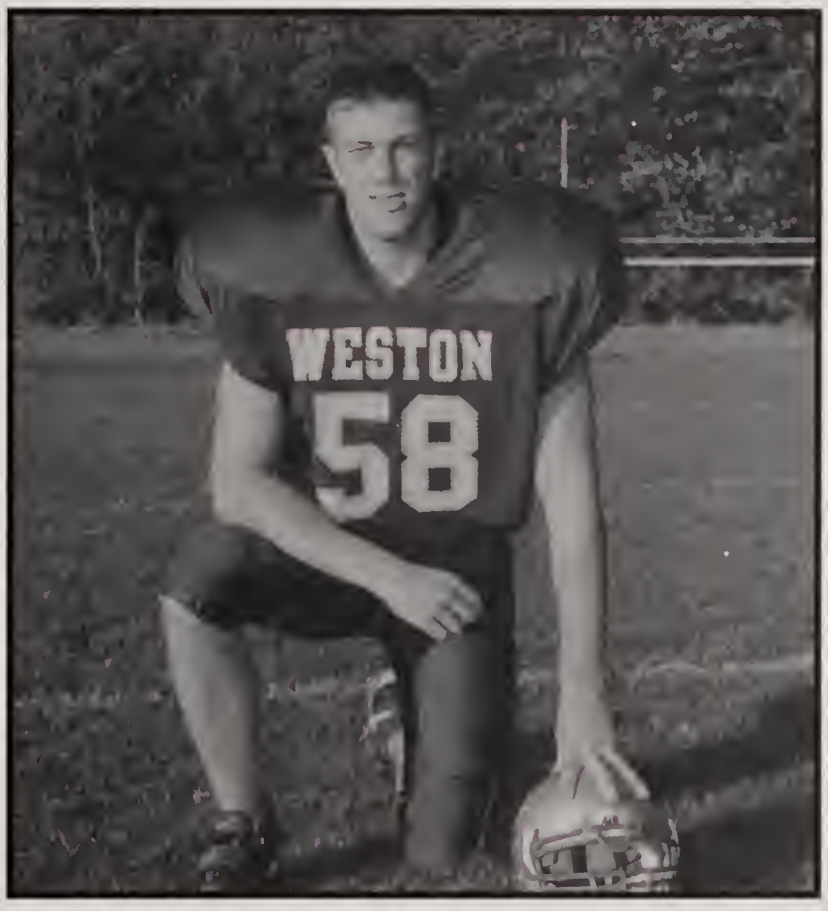
Francis Racioppi



Dear Francis,

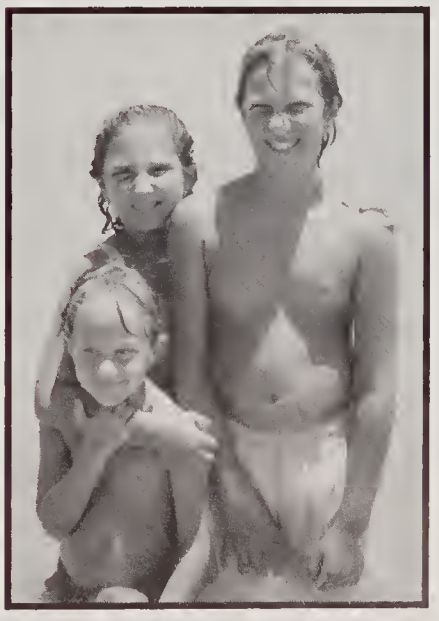
As we reminisce through the boxes of family photos we are reminded of the gentler, kinder, more thoughtful and sensitive leader...."Little Francis".

Through the trials and tribulations of adolescence, those virtues often flickered and sometimes disappeared.

Today, as an emerging adult we renew our love and confidence in you as we recognize that "Little Francis" is not lost, he is just in a bigger and better package!

Set your goals high, remain confident and reach within you. You have all the values, strengths and qualities for great achievement. We will always be there, proudly!

We love you! Dad, Mom, Carla, Alex & Caesar



The Class of 1999 at the Close of Its Final Year

As We Come To The End...

"You learn to build all your roads on today
Because tomorrow's is too uncertain for plan
And futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight.
After a while you learn that even sunshine burns
if you get too much.
So you plant your own garden, decorate your own soul,
Instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.
And you learn that you really can endure...
That you really are strong...
That you really do have worth.
And you learn and learn.
With every goodbye
You learn."

End of the Year. Lauren Balsb and Andrew Horowitz.

A Class Act. This English class is trying hard to remember the two definitions of "halcyon".

Down Time. Shana Bethune and Sarah McNeer pause for a moment in the caf during one of their frees. After the beginning of second semester, these two, along with many other seniors, enjoyed open campus privileges.

Tall and Small. Despite their difference in altitude, Peter Wilson and Gigi Ng still remain close friends.

Still Hard At It. Even after being accepted to college, Alyssa Bonnoit continued to study diligently to keep up her high grades.

Studying Hard. Joe Forte and John Ivey avoid the Senior Slump by working hard until the end of the year.

Jump, Jive and Wail. Susan Warren and Kristine Osmond have really picked up on the new swing dancing fad.

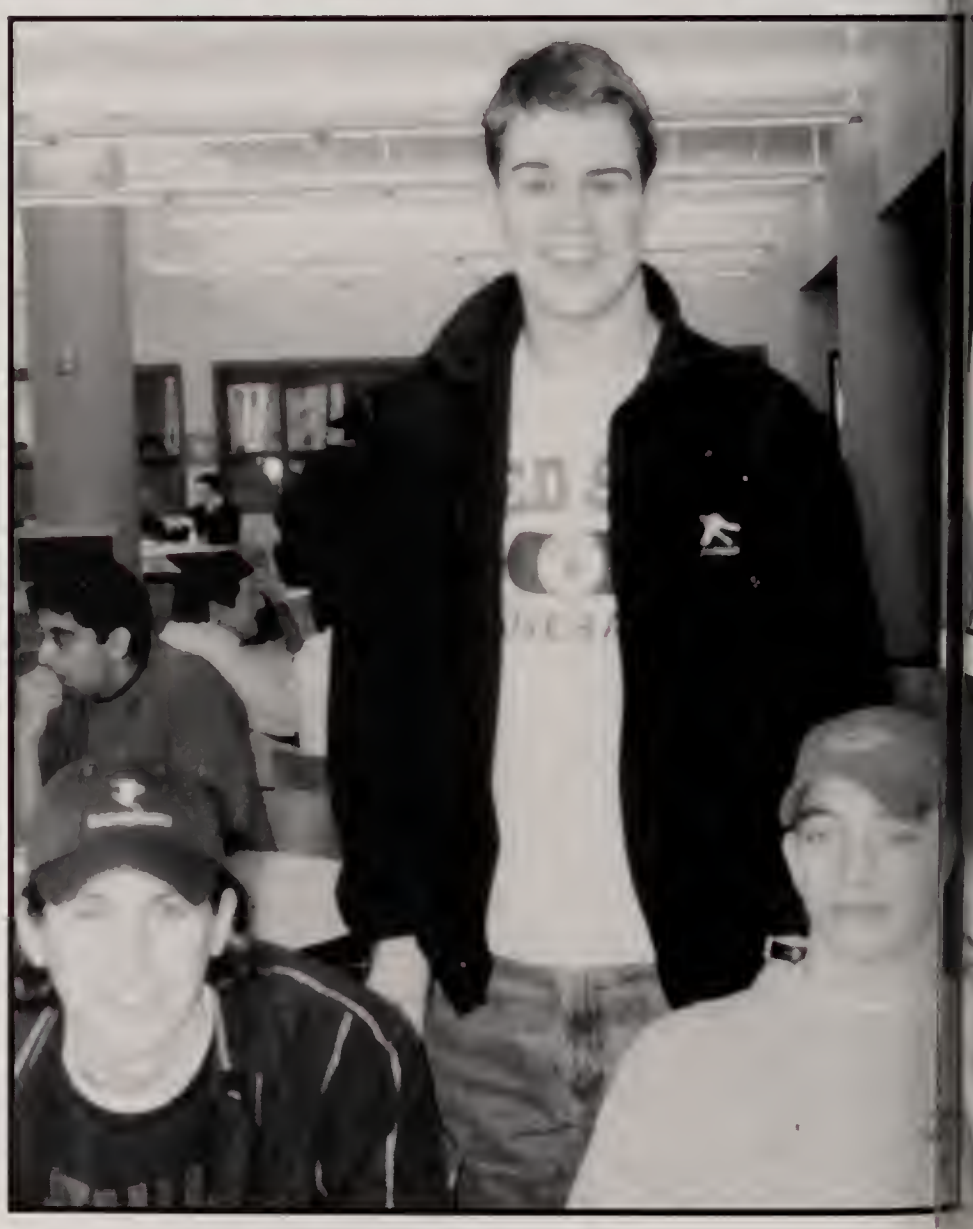
A Laugh of Disbelief. Mrs. Bateman can't believe what Robby has done this time during prom construction.

We've Arrived. These freshman are happy to finally be at the high school together, hanging out in the cafeteria.

Chow Time. Nathan Ackerman is beaming knowing that it is time for lunch.

Social Center. Kelly Weiss, Ashley Viola, and Ani Bagdasarian take a break together in the caf.

What It's About. Dan Martin, Tommy Dickie, and Tim Horton are junior guys having fun during a free period.



Best Buds. Alex Bullen and Lauren Reber relax outside on a warm autumn day.

Trick or Treat. These fresman girls get into the spirit of Halloween by dressing up.

Cafe Central. These juniors relax and eat during a fun lunch period.

Hanging. Evan Zacharias, Lawry Hutcheson, Cara Zimmerman, and Vincent Ng hang out on a beautiful fall day.

Watching a Game. Barbara Jackson, Austin Allain, and Laura Mooney are having fun during a fall night game.

IN IT TO THE END...

Valiant Effort

It was a disappointing season for the Weston boys' tennis team. Coming off an 8-8 season last year and a state quarterfinal showing in the Division II tournament, we posted a 4-12 record in 1999, and failed to make the post season.

The strength of the team lay primarily with the three singles players: senior captain, Andrew Cooper, in the top slot, Harold Birnbaum one ring below, and freshman Sam Treadway in third. Treadway achieved the best record on the team at 6-10.

The doubles teams of junior Rob Athas and seniors James You, Jeff Wu and Mark Hsu put in excellent effort with Wu and Hsu encountering more success.

Boys tennis looks ahead to next year with the senior leadership of Birnbaum and Athas and the aspiring youth of Treadway.

Girls Tennis

Girls' Tennis had a great season, despite our record. We all worked very hard in every match, and the majority of them were very close.

Having lost many varsity players from '98, we knew this year would be tough, but we took it in stride, working very hard to have an excellent season. Many underclassmen stepped up to the challenge, and impressed everyone with their talent and hard work.

Our new coach, Martha Roiter, was an immense help, giving great advice and support throughout the season.

Thanks to all the people who came and watched us. We loved the support!

ANTICIPATION. The team gets psyched for one of their many victories.

Best Ever!

This year's boys lacrosse season was undoubtedly a success. As a second year varsity team, we learned a lot about how to work together and compete with some of the best teams in the state, like rivals Concord-Carlisle and Lincoln-Sudbury.

The team was made up primarily of seniors, leaving next year's team in a challenging position. The boys will do their best to overcome this setback next season.

Special thanks are in order to Coach John Lewis and John Wilson for their help and coaching , and also to the parents who continuously showed their support for the team.

WE WANT IT TOGETHER

No Regrets

This year, the girls lacrosse team defended their DCL Championship title for the second year in a row. Under the guidance of a new coach, Nindy LeRoy, who was named Coach of the Year by "School Sports" magazine, the team made it to the state tournament.

In the state tournament, Weston faced arch rival, Needham High School, in the Eastern Massachusetts semifinals. Despite valiant efforts by the team's tri-captains, Sara Peterson, Sarah Jenks-Daly, and Kathryn Doherty, the game concluded the Wildcat's season with an impressive 17-3 record.

Still Running Strong

Every Mile

The Weston Girls Track team provided a plethora of pleasing performances this spring, as they do every year.

In the regular season, Weston participated in a number of challenging DCL meets. Talented throwers racked up points, as runners and jumpers continued to score in numerous events.

The Dual County All League meet was a good one for Weston, who brought home three All Stars: Genevieve Abraham, KC Czarnowski, and Samantha Shepherd. Weston's other post season performances at the Class D and All State Meet were also notable.

Rising talent helped Weston achieve this year and will lead the Wildcats to victory in the next decade.

The 1999 boys' spring track season ended with a record of 6-2. This could not have been acomplished if not for the incredible coaches and athletes.

Although we graduated some outstanding athletes, the underclassmen boys are ready and willing to take on whatever is in store for them.

—Casley Vass '00

WITH EASE. Jenny Wong persistently runs swiftly.

LIKE A BIRD. Samantha Shephard flys up over the bar.

RUNNING ON AIR. Brad Callow flies through the air at this track meet.

SMOOTH. Logan Jones shows his talent in the baton relay race.

On The Diamond

The 1999 baseball team, led by senior captains Jeff Coburn, Alex Smith, and Jordan Remy, recorded a 11-6 record in the regu-lar season. The cats advanced into the sectional semi-finals in Alex Gallagher's last season as head coach.

They were led on the mound by ace pitcher Alex Smith and received strong outings from Jeff Coburn as well as junior Kyle Spellman. The team had tremendous speed with Jordan Remy, Marc Ferrelli, and John Viola, who blazed around the bases all season. Catcher Brady Lauback and shortstop Austin Allain carried the team both defensively and at the plate, both of them having many big hits.

GOING, GOING, GONE! Jordan Remy aggressively waits for the bunt.

PERFECT PITCH. Alex Smith concentrates on strategically placing the ball.

FAST AS LIGHTNING. John Viola sprints to first base.

Spring Plays

Theater Company was in full gear this winter and spring with the stunning Machinal, and delightful Once on This Island. Machinal, an expressionistic ensemble piece centered on a young woman who is destroyed by her society, won numerous acting and technical awards and made it all the way to the state finals. Once on This Island exploded two weeks after Machinal state finals with booming energy and spectacular musical numbers. The year was topped off with the most active Cabaret of all time, a night of one- act plays, scenes, songs, and improv. It was truly a great year filled with energy, involvement, bonding, memories and many laughs – characteristic of Theater Company!

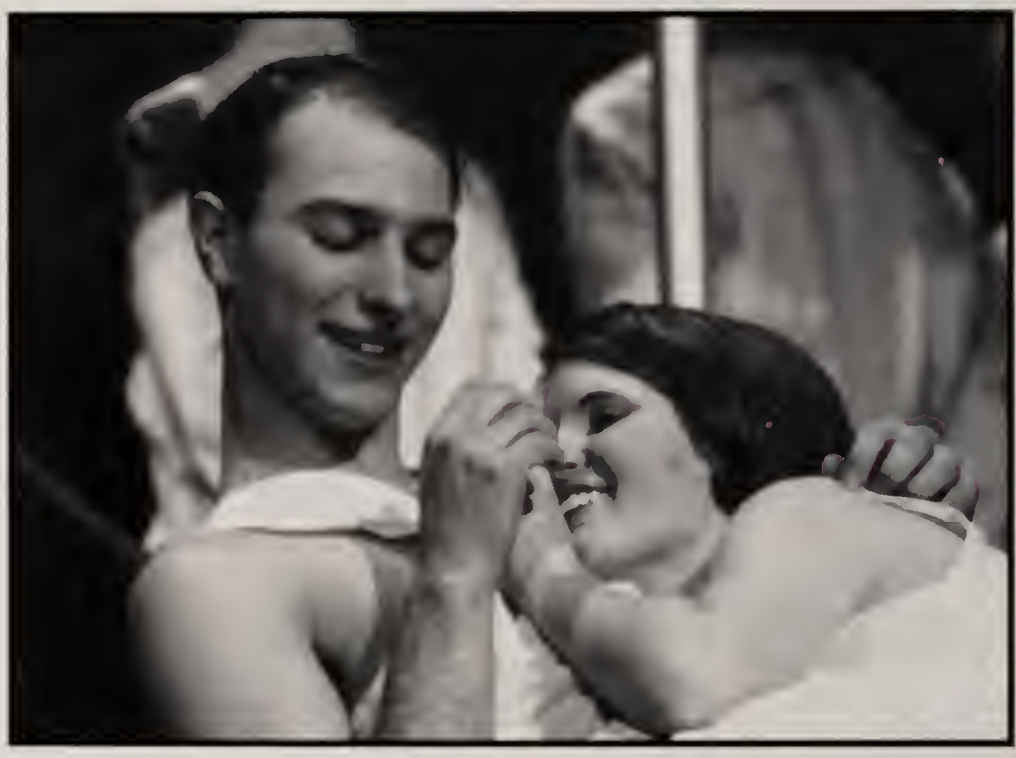
BRAVO! Ashley St. Mary and Bill Fagley show their amazing talent in this scene.

A RIVITING PERFORMANCE. Eli Mather and Meg Sallay capture the audience.

GIVING ALL THEY'VE GOT. The cast gives its all during one of its performances.



DEDICATION. Emma Sweet and Meg Sallay work hard as part of the cast.

CHEMISTRY. Bill Barclay and Meg Sallay act beautifully together.

ALL NATURAL. Joelle Lurie hams it up as Mother Earth in Once on This Island.

HEAVENLY VOICES. Jack Sallay, Joelle Lurie, Bill Barclay, and Meg Sallay sing proudly as the four gods in the spring musical.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION. Eli Mather and Christina Kappel light up the stage.

TUNE OF THE GODS. Jack Sallay belts it out as the god of water in Once on This Island.

IN NEED OF A SAVIOR. Ashley St. Mary, playing the lead role of Ti Moone, looks to the Gods for help.

Poem read in memory of Chris by Anna Becker

Remembering a Friend

i thank You God for most this amazing day: for the leaping greenly spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything which is natural, which is infinite, which is yes

(i who have died am alive again today, and this is the sun's birthday; this is the birth day of life and of love and wings: and of the gay great happening illimitable earth)

how should tasting touching hearing seeing breathing, any–lifted from the no of all nothing – human merely being doubt unimaginable You?

(now the ears of my ears awake and now the eyes of my eyes are opened)
